NEWSPAPER NOTICE

The newspaper advertisement should state, after the heading BRAY TOWN COUNCIL:-

- The name of the applicant;
- Whether the application is for Permission for Development, Outline Permission for Development, Permission consequent on the grant of Outline Permission (stating the register reference number of the outline permission), or Permission for Retention of Development;
- The location, townland, or postal address of the land or structure to which the application relates;
- The nature and extent of the development proposed. This must be brief but concise and inclusive. Where an application relates to an extension which is the same size or larger than the existing dwelling, the newspaper notice must state both the size of the existing dwelling and the proposed extension. If the application relates to development consisting of or comprising the provision of dwellings, the number of dwellings must be stated. For retention of a structure the proposed use and, where appropriate, the period for which it is proposed to retain the structure must be stated. If it is proposed to carry out works affecting a protected structure this must be stated.
- That the planning application may be inspected or purchased at a fee not exceeding the reasonable cost of making a copy, at the offices of the planning authority during its public opening hours and that a submission or observation in relation to the application may be made to the authority in writing on payment of the prescribed fee within the period of 5 weeks beginning on the date of receipt by the Authority of the application.

Applications must be received within two weeks of the date of the notice being published.

The full original page of the newspaper containing the Newspaper Notice must be submitted with each application.
